v.

STACY DODD (B)

MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has considered the Defendant's Motion to Modify Conditions of Probation (Pursuant to Rule 27.2) filed September 22, 2003. The Court has also considered the Defendant's Supplement to Motion to Modify Defendant's Conditions of Probation (Pursuant to Rule 27.2) filed September 24, 2003. Consistent with Rule 27.2, Arizona Rules of Criminal Procedure, no hearing is appropriate. The Court also construes the motion and supplemental motion as a motion for reconsideration of the six months incarceration imposed as a condition of probation. No response is necessary. On August 18, 2003, this Court sentenced Defendant pursuant to a plea agreement which guaranteed her probation. As part of the plea agreement, the original count 1, possession of marijuana for sale, a class 2 felony, was reduced to facilitation to possess marijuana for sale, a class 6 felony. As an additional benefit, count 2, sale or transportation of marijuana was dismissed at sentencing. Information received prior to and at sentencing showed Defendant to be a direct accomplice and beneficiary in transporting and selling exceptionally large amounts of marijuana to the eastern part of the country.

For the above reasons and the reasons stated at sentencing,

IT IS ORDERED denying the Defendant's Motion to Modify Conditions of Probation and reaffirming six months jail incarceration with credit for 11 days from August 18, 2003 to February 6, 2004.
